

Disability Accommodation

<http://disabilities.uchicago.edu>

The University of Chicago is committed to facilitating the full participation of students with disabilities in the life of the University.

Disability Determination Process:

- Self-identify and begin disability determination process.
- Submit current and complete documentation (within 3 years).
- Determination of academic adjustments and modifications is case-by-case (and can require up to 10 wks).
- Area Dean of Students will facilitate the implementation of approved auxiliary aids and services.
