

Application Instructions

AWARD

The Edith Fuerstenberg, Naomi Fuerstenberg, and Simon Fuerstenberg Fellowships are awarded to University of Chicago students in all fields of study who also have pursued, are pursuing, or have expressed an intention to pursue Jewish theological seminary training. The fellowship may also be awarded to students with financial need. While students in all fields are encouraged to apply, priority will be given to those pursuing Jewish Studies, broadly defined. Fellowships of up to $12,500 each are awarded to defray research and living expenses during the award period (July 1, 2024 - June 30, 2025).

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be pursuing a full-time degree at the University of Chicago in one of the graduate academic divisions (Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, Institute for Molecular Engineering, Divinity School), professional schools (Booth, Harris, Law, Pritzker, Social Service Administration), or the College;
- Students of any citizenship may apply;
- Students who have previously received a Fuerstenberg Fellowship may re-apply in subsequent competitions but renewed funding is not guaranteed;
- NOTE: recipients must submit a report summarizing academic and research activity during the grant period on/before June 30, 2025.

APPLICATION PROCESS

By April 15, 2024 at 5pm CST, applicants must submit the following materials via e-mail to Margaret Kurkoski (kurkoski@uchicago.edu). Selection decisions will be announced by June 1.

- Fuerstenberg Fellowship Application and Financial Summary Form (following page);
- One-page statement (500 words or less) that describes the applicant's research interests and how the Fuerstenberg Fellowship will assist in reaching academic goals;
- Official University of Chicago transcript listing courses and grades*;
- Two letters of recommendation, one of which must be from the applicant's advisor.

*Student can send an e-transcript to kurkoski@uchicago.edu

Faculty can e-mail letters of recommendation to kurkoski@uchicago.edu; should be signed on letterhead.
