FEATURED JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Internship with NPR'S Throughline Podcast

Description: Throughline is a serialized storytelling podcast from NPR. We are looking for a research intern to help in researching and developing our next season, which will focus on the history of American moral questions and how the Good Life is discussed in U.S. culture and politics through the 20th century. The fellow will attend meetings and group edits and help with the planning of our calendar of guest conversations. The intern will assist the Throughline team in researching topics and scheduling interviews with specialists in the field.

Apply in spring quarter or June 22.

The Intern will receive a stipend of $6,000. Apply or receive more information via the job board (Job ID: 66457).
