FEATURED JOBS AND INTERSHIPS

Teen and Public Engagement Internship, Smart Museum of Art

Are you interested in designing public programs? Consider applying for this summer quarter internship at the SMART Museum at the University of Chicago. The Teen and Public Engagement Intern will collaborate with existing museum staff to conceive, plan, and lead an intensive six-week summer session for twenty south-side teens. The program is issue-based and partner-based to achieve the greatest possible effect that ripples far beyond the participating youth. Participants will engage multiple organizational partners, conduct community-based research, and design and create a space for larger public engagement with the humanities. Apply in GRAD Gargoyle, ID 67192.
